

Driver License / ID Document Requirements

Non-Immigrants

Non-Immigrants (anyone who is not a U.S. Citizen or Permanent Resident) are entitled to a driver license or ID card for one year, or until the specific expiration date on their USCIS document(s), whichever is sooner.

You must bring specific forms of Identification, Social Security & Residential Address

bring

1

Primary Identification

NO Photocopies

Valid identification and current USCIS immigration documents must be presented each time testing, identification card, or driver license issuance is requested. The listing below is not all inclusive; please bring all current immigration documents to your appointment for review and acceptance.

- Valid Employment Authorization Card (Form I-766)
- Expired employment authorization card and I-765 filed prior to employment card expiration
- Valid Canadian passport
- Valid foreign passport and Immigration Judge's Order or Notice of Future Hearing
- Valid foreign passport and current I-94
- Valid foreign passport and current USCIS documents authorizing Parole or Refugee status
- Valid foreign passport and pending application for Asylum

Non-immigrants with a name change must first update their name with USCIS and Social Security Administration (SSA). An original or certified copy of your marriage certificate or court order must be provided along with proof of name change with USCIS. Please wait at least one business day after updating name with social security before applying for an updated license or ID card.

Canadian Citizens will need to update their passport or USCIS documents AND Canadian driver license (if one was issued) before the new name can be placed on the Florida credential.

NO Photocopies

NOTE: License or ID card expiration date will be based on specific documents presented, not to exceed one (1) year. Non-US citizens applying for an original, renewal, or replacement license may be issued a 60-day paper temporary permit and receipt. Those applying for an ID card may only receive a receipt. Upon verification of legal status, FLHSMV will mail the driver license or ID card to the address on record within 60 days. You must wait to receive your card in the mail before applying for any additional licenses or ID cards. If a problem is detected, a denial of issuance letter will be mailed.

bring

1

Social Security Number

must contain full social security number

- Original Social Security Card
- W-2 or 1099 form
- Pay Stub with full Social Security Number

All persons who are eligible for social security number issuance/ authorized to work in the United States must provide proof of social security number (SSN) to be issued a license or identification (ID) card. If your application for social security number is pending, you must wait to obtain this prior to applying for a license or ID card.

bring

2

Proofs of Florida Residential Address*

- Deed, mortgage statement, property tax documents, or lease agreement
- Selective Service card
- Valid Florida Vehicle/Vessel Registration or Title
- Utility bills dated within the last 60 days (ex: water, gas, electricity, telephone/cell, cable etc.)
- Financial statement dated within the last 60 days (ex: bank, credit card or investment account statements)
- Automobile payment booklet dated within the last 60 days
- Medical or health card and/or medical bill dated within the last 60 days
- Professional license issued by a U.S. government agency
- Employer documentation dated within the last 60 days (ex: paycheck stub, W-2 form)
- Current Homeowner's and/or Automobile Insurance policy or bill
- Documents issued by Federal, State, County or City government agencies dated within last 60 days
- FDLE registration form completed by the local sheriff's office or Department of Corrections dated within the last 30 days

When using proofs of address in someone else's name, a completed Certification of Address form must be completed and the directions on the form must be followed.