US Permanent Residents

United States lawful permanent residents (LPRs), also known as 'green card' holders, are non-citizens who are lawfully authorized to live permanently within the United States.

You must bring specific forms of Identification, Social Security and Residential Address bring

1 Primary Identification NO Photocopies

- US Permanent Resident Card (Green Card, Form I-551)
- Valid foreign passport and proof from United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), such as approved I-485 or I-589 receipt, immigration judge's order, or stamp in passport showing that asylum or refugee status is granted/approved
- Immigrant Visa or I-551 stamp in valid passport

US Permanent Residents with a name change must first update their name with USCIS and Social Security Administration (SSA). An original or certified copy of your marriage certificate or court order must be provided along with proof of name change with USCIS (such as I-797 or I-90). Please wait at least one business day after updating name with social security before applying for an updated license or ID card.
